ABSTRACT

A list of equipment and supplies useful in the daytime care of infants and toddlers is presented. This equipment is in use at an all-day care center for 15 infants and 10-12 toddlers. The following types of items are listed: furnishings, linens, toys for motor activities, manipulative toys, crib toys, outdoor play equipment, books, phonograph records, posters, household items used for toys, and health supplies. Prices are quoted for many items.

for

INFANT - TODDLER CENTER

(Revised 1969)

The attached list has been prepared in response to numerous requests. It is based on our two-year experience of operating a Center for the daytime care of infants and toddlers. Our Demonstration Nursery Center provides all-day care for 15 infants and 10 - 12 toddlers. It has a staff of five full-time care-givers for these babies; a part-time Janitor, a Cook, a Nurse, and a Director. The Nursery is housed in the education wing of a church, and we are permitted to use several cribs and the child-size tables and chairs belonging to the church.

HEALTH SUPPLIES

The following items, used regularly, are purchased as needed from a local drug supply house:

Sterile Cotton Balls
Caldesene Powder
Desitin Ointment
PHisoHex
Dial Soap
Band-Aids
Hydrogen Peroxide
Merthiolate

UNIFORMS

Uniforms are provided for all staff members. Since there is such a great variety available, choice can be made according to needs and tastes.

Each nursery assistant has three uniform dresses (of the skimmer style) and one lab coat (dresses blue, coat blue). This spring we discovered a very attractive pantdress, and one has been ordered for each assistant who would like to have one.
